The Manningham Concert Band is bringing the music of New York's Broadway to Doncaster.

THE Manningham Concert Band is bringing the music of New York's Broadway to Doncaster.

Doncaster Secondary College's theatre will transform into a sight and sound show this Saturday for the band's annual gala, Broadway Spectacular.

Manningham Concert Band president Rachael D'Rozario said the Broadway tribute was apt given Melburnian's love affair with musicals.

"Broadway has always been known for its great musical numbers and memorable stories," Ms D'Rozario said.

"This performance will have the audience humming along to all their favourites."

The night will include a range of Broadway and Big Band music, with guest singer Richard Thomas also performing.

The selection includes pieces from The King and I, Beauty and the Beast, The Producers and The Wizard of Oz.

Broadway Spectacular is at the Doncaster Secondary College theatre, Church Rd, Doncaster, at 7.30pm on Saturday, . Tickets are $16 adults and $8 children (under 13), with refreshments included.
