ONE of the state's oldest concert bands will hold its annual gala concert at Doncaster.

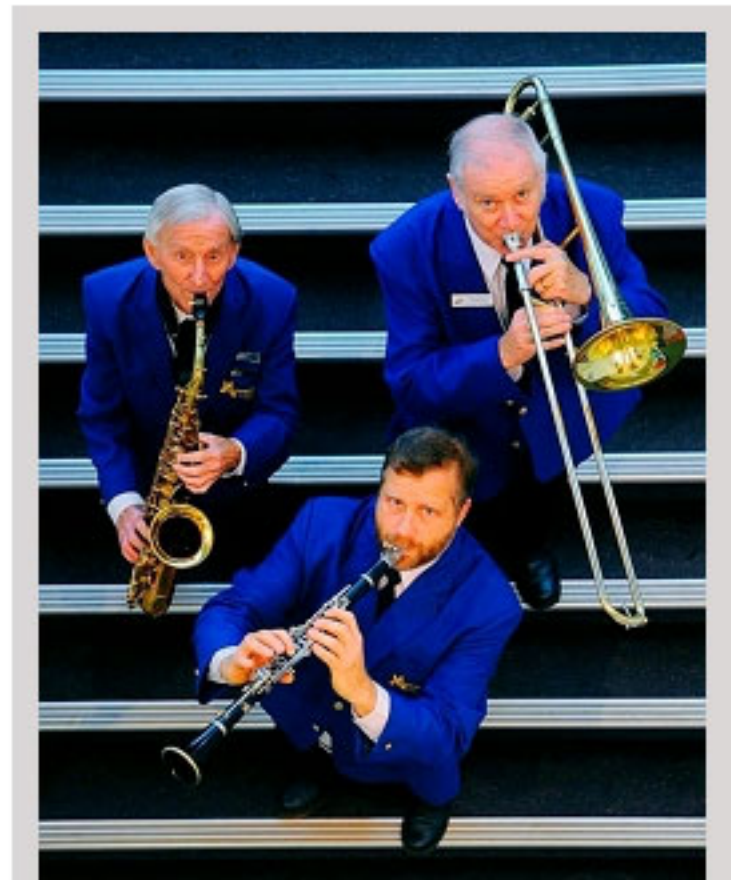

The Manningham Concert Band will perform a swinging show called All that Jazz, with special guests Opus 21 Big Band on August 30.

The Manningham Concert Band will play the music of Glenn Miller, Duke Ellington, Woody Herman and George Gershwin.

The band's musical director, Andrew van Gemert, who has been associated with the band for 25 years, said more than 40 musicians would take to the stage for the big show.

* The concert is on August 30 at Doncaster Secondary College, Church Rd, Doncaster. For tickets, phone Jo on 9846 4527.
